EB Docket No. 06-36

Dear Secretary:

Telefónica Larga Distancia de Puerto Rico, Inc. (TLD), submits its most recent Carrier's Compliance Certificate as required by Section 64.2009 (e) of the Commission's rules.

TLD operates as an IXC and local service reseller in Puerto Rico and states that it does not use or disclose in any manner any information considered CPNI as defined on Section 222 (h) (1) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.¹ In regards with the CPNI safeguards, TLD certifies that it is the Company's policy not to use the CPNI in any manner, neither for sales or marketing efforts. Basically, mass and enterprise market marketing and sales efforts do not use, disclose or permit access of the CPNI. In the eventuality, TLD decides to market communications related services will implement any of the approval process identified on Section 64.2007 & 64.2008 of the Commission's rules prior to the use of any use of CPNI.

TLD has not entered on any joint venture partners or independent contractor agreement in connection with the use of CPNI as well. Finally, all TLD's employees have to sign a Confidentiality Agreement as part of their hiring process and TLD's policies and procedures includes disciplinary actions for any disclosure of confidential and material information acquired as part of their employment.

With this submission of the Certificate and this accompanying statement, TLD understands that has demonstrated to be in compliance with the Federal Commission's rules for protecting the privacy of the CPNI as directed on its recent Public Notice last January 30, 2006.
